SECTION 3. ASSETS TO BE TRANSFERRED

Number of Shares or Units	Asset(s) Description	Asset Type	ISIN or Ticker	Currency	Current Estimated Value	Counter-Party Name (Life Company / Provider / Platform)

Important Note:

- The Cash should be sent to Providence directly. Providence cannot accept Cash from counterparties.
- For Structured Notes, the transfer will be considered based on the individual Note provider terms and conditions.
- For all other assets, 100% of units held can be transferred.
- Transfer of assets may create a tax liability depending on your country of residence or domicile. If in doubt, You should seek the advice of a tax advisor who is qualified to give advice, which is relevant to your country of residence and domicile.
- Providence Life Limited, PCC (Providence) will only consider transferring Investments and/or individual assets as per the minimum value mentioned in the applicable Providence bond product Terms & Conditions.
- All relevant supporting documentation, where available, should be enclosed with this request for transfer of assets.
- All assets will be transferred into the name of Providence and Providence reserves the right to make a charge for any costs incurred during the transfer of assets to your bond.
- The timeframe of completing the transfer of assets will vary based on the Counter-Party involved. Providence cannot accept responsibility for consequences that may arise from a delay. Assets cannot be sold during this period.
- Counter-Party in this form may refer to either a life company, provider or platform.
- For assets transferred into your portfolio bond, 2% of the total initial asset value is required to be kept liquid at all times for the life of the policy, to cover bond charges and also Trust charges (if applicable). This will either be kept in the Money Market Fund or held as 'Cash' depending on the Providence product you have selected.
